And these signs shall accompany them
that believe: In my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any poison, it shall in no wise hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

9 Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10
She went and told them that had been with him, & they mourned and wept.
11 And they heard that he was alive,
but they had been seen of her, disbelieved.

12 And after these things he was manifested in another form unto two they sat at meat; and he upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen. 15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation. 16 He that believeth and is disbelieveth shall be condemned. 17

And these signs shall accompany them
that believe: in my name shall they cast out demons; they shall take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall in no wise hurt
them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

18 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken unto them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. 19 And when they went forth, and preached every-and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

PROPHECY

While on the top of Pike's Peak, we met an old mountain man who had the amazing ability to tell fortunes. He not only told us our future, but he also showed us what we would be doing many years from now. We'll now pass along to you the amazing prophecies of this old gentleman.

First, the old man showed us the image of a shabby beggar, with hand outstretched, standing on the corner of a busy street in Denison, Kansas. After giving the poor, old, wretched creature a dime we asked him his name and former profession. He told us he had been a private in the army for 20 years, and could not make enough money to support his wife, Sherry, and their 15 children. Then when we found out his name, it was none other than Larry Blumberg.

After this the old prophet showed us the metropolis of Denison. During the Space Age, Denison had grown to be the fourth largest city in America with a population exceeding 15 million. Various suburbs included such towns as Topeka, Holton, Valley Falls, and Kansas City.

After showing us the city, the old man took us to a sports show in Los Angeles. There the award was being given to the Sportsman of the year. It was a large trophy, nearly four feet high. We waited anxiously to see to whom this would be presented. Soon the time for the presentation of the trophy came. The name called was Roy Braun.

The old man then took us to Greenwich Village, New York. There we visited the National Association for the Advancement of Beatniks. (Better known as the N. A. A. B.) There we had the honor of meeting Marard Braunam, (our own Monty), who was president of the Association.

We then went to Boston where we visited the office of Dr. Georgia Coleman, a prominent woman psychologist. (She's still trying to figure out Ray Barrow.)

Then to our amazement there was a picture of the Nautilus submarine and guess who was running the sub. The man that we knew as Bill Freland.

The old man asked all of us to go to the World Rodeo at Madison Square Garden. We sat there listening to the M. C. announce the riders. We were sure surprised to find David Lytle riding that famous horse, Crack-up.

Then we went to Indianapolis where the yearly "Indianapolis 500" was being run. It was no surprise when we found that the winner was Francis Pierson. His car you might guess--his '48 Ford.

The old man then showed us a vision of the famous Dior Dress Designing Association in Paris. The head dress designer was our own Leila Marcell. (Better known as Leila Marcellus.)

We then saw a vision of Hollywood, California, where Jungle John Johnston had just signed a movie contract to star in the latest "Tarzan" movie.

The seer then took us to the office of the New York Tribune where Dale Salts had taken over Dear Abby's column. He was giving advice to teenagers about going steady.

From the Tribune Office, we went to the airport, where a big airliner was just coming in. As the passengers stepped off the plane we were surprised to see that Mary Ann Krogman was one of the hostesses.

The prophet then took us to downtown New York, where we were amazed at the size of the sky scrapers and business offices. On the front of one large building we noticed the name "Coleman and Moore" toothpick factory. When we went inside we found that the heads of this company were our own Georgine Coleman and Phyllis Moore.

Only time will tell if the old gentleman's predictions were correct. In the meantime we can only hope for the best.

Class Officers: President, Mary Braum; Vice President, Georgine Coleman; Secretary Treasurer, Mary Ann Krogman; Student Council, Georgia Coleman.

New members gained: Hershel Wendt, Melva Grubb, Francis Pierson, Gary Salts, Larry Beasterfield.

Those who transferred: Norma Anderson, Karen Wennihan, Larry Beasterfield.

In '59 and '60 we began to feel safer
As upper-class wheels, we published the paper.
We also took the seniors to the bottom of the sea,
Where Old Father Neptune gave their prophecy to a "T".

Class Officers: President, Leila Marcellus; Vice President, Georgia Coleman; Secretary Treasurer, Georgine Coleman; Student Council, Larry Blumberg.

Those who Transferred: Mary Braum, Melva Grubb, Hershel Wendt.

And now we are known as the Class of '61.
It's been a lot of worry; it's been a lot of fun.
Besides a year of study, sports, and music, too,
We've had a jillion food sales, and collected trash for you.
The banquet in our honor was one we'll ne'er forget
And the stars who gave performances will surely hit the Met.
And even though our Senior sneak really left us numb-- Here's a word of warning: Look out world, here we come!

Sponser: Mr. Dawson

Class Officers: President, Larry Blumberg; Vice President, Bill Freeland; Secretary Treasurer, Dale Salts; Student Council, Roy Braum.

Graduating Class of '61: Larry Blumberg, Georgine and Georgia Coleman, Bill Freeland, Leila Marcellus, Dale Salts, Roy Braum, Francis Pierson, John Johnston, Phyllis Moore, Mary Ann Krogman, Monty Branam, David Lytle.

HISTORY

Way back there in the year '49
A momentous thing happened in the annals of time
Denison had a first grade so superior--so great--
That many felt it was the hand of fate.
Each mother smiled for she knew right away
That her own little boy would be President some day.

Members were: Roy Braum, Georgine and Georgia Coleman, Larry Blumberg, David Lytle.

Teacher was: Mrs. Vera Frazier

And tarought the years, students came and went
We made new friends, kept the old, and learned what school really meant
We learned that 2 plus 2 is 4, and i before e except after c how to sink hook shots, and sing do ri me.
And with all of this knowledge tucked in our brain
We headed for high sc.ool secure in our fame.

Teachers during the grade years were: Mrs. Frazier
Mrs. Habor
Mrs. Ramey
Mrs. Sales
Mr. Fernkoph
Mrs. Baker

Ah, yes, '57 was a banner year in our little city 13 students entered D. H. S.--all brilliant, handsome and pretty.

Sponsor: Miss Currin

Class Officers: President, Mary Braum; Vice President, Georgine Coleman; Secretary Treasurer,
Mary Ann Krogman; Student Council,
Leila Marcellus; Reporter, Georgia
Coleman.

Other members of the class were: Bill Freeland, Roy Braum, Karen Wennihan,
David Lytle, Dale
Salts, Monty Brnum,
Phyllis Moore, Larry
Blumberg, Norma Anderson

In '58 and '59 we really hit our stride
We served the banquet royally, and took the freshmen for a ride.

Sponsor: Mrs. Baker

Teenagers during the 1960s were: Mrs. Wright

6 And he saith unto them, I am he that am crucified for you; ye have slain him, who hath been crucified; the place where he is not here: behold, the place where they laid him! 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, He goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. 8 And they went out, and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one; for they were afraid.

9 Now when he was risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared up first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. 10 She went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept. 11 And they, when they heard that he was alive, and had been seen, did not believe.

many have taken him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. 13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias: because thy supplication is heard, and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son. 14 And thou shalt call his name John. 15 For he shall have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. 16 And he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and he shall drink no wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. 17 And many of the children of Israel shall be turned unto the Lord their God. 18 And he shall go before his face in the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the power of Elijah, to turn the wisdom of the just; to make ready for the Lord a people prepared for him. 19 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years. 20 And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and to thee I have sent to speak good tidings. 21 And behold, thou shalt be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall come to pass, because thou believest not my words.
